Course Synopsis

In this course, participants will learn how to build a strategic thinking mindset to achieve financial security in retirement.

We will also discuss and analyse various expert investors' investing strategies. In the modern complex financial world, investment can be seen as a military operation.

Successful investors think deeply in their strategy and craft their plan methodically. By taking inspiration from the Art of War (孙子兵法).

Participants will learn to apply strategies from the Art of War in a financial context to navigate through the 'trade-war' and currency war' today.
