Course Synopsis

Stress in life and in the workplace is growing by the day. Relaxation is an important tool to manage the stress that builds up. However, do you feel that you have lost your ability to relax?

Relaxation nowadays is hindered by your daily life. At work, you have deadlines, timelines and pressures which create stress and tension which needs an outlet.

Despite so, when you are at home, you may need to focus your attention to your spouse, your children and other family matters, leaving no time or space for yourself.

In our 1-day workshop, participants will learn the techniques needed to create space for relaxation. Relaxation helps one to think, act and communicate more clearly. Your personal health will benefit and you will find yourself fitter and more productive in the workplace.

Course Objectives

By the end of the workshop, participants will be able to:

- Increase your sense of body awareness
- Heighten your ability to listen to body signals
