Course Synopsis

Emotional intelligence is the ability to manage one's emotions, as well as the emotions of others. In this VUCA (Volatility, Uncertainty, Complexity, Ambiguity) world, we are constantly bombarded with information, changes, disruptions, technologically challenges, etc, coupled with the need to respond swiftly, and sometimes operating in a very complicated and uncertain environment.

Leaders and teams can be easily stressed out, and managing emotions under these trying circumstances can be challenging.

Emotions, if not managed properly, can affect areas in Work Performance, Physical Health, Mental Health and Team Relationships. Now more than ever, organizations worldwide recognized the greater urgency to address the Emotional Intelligent skills of its leaders.

In fact, many companies now rate emotional intelligence as important as technical ability in performance appraisal. Emotional Intelligence is a skill to be cultivated, and not simply know about it.

In this intensive and experiential 2-Day workshop, participants will be able to experience the 4 domains of Emotional Intelligence and apply the skills learnt to work and life. Profiling experiment will be used to allow the participants to discover their personality, strengths and weaknesses.

Learn to regulate your emotions using simple and effective techniques. Learn to apply your new skills effectively through facilitator's demonstrations and role-plays. Analyze Case Studies to deepen your understanding and gain insights. Take this opportunity to master your emotional intelligence, build stronger relationships and teams, and be successful and fulfilled in life.
