DIGITAL MARKETING ESSENTIALS

Course Synopsis

The Digital Marketing Essentials course is designed to equip participants with the foundational skills and knowledge necessary to excel in the dynamic field of online marketing.

It covers the traditional marketing mix principles (Product, Price, Place, Promotion) within a digital context, including analysing how organisations adapt these elements in their digital marketing strategies. Through theoretical learning and practical exercises, including case studies and real-world examples, participants will also learn to map the online customer journey, identifying critical digital touchpoints for optimal consumer engagement.

Beyond the fundamentals, participants will learn to navigate the future of retail with Generative AI and Omnichannel strategies. Using our Trend-to-Action Framework, they will leave with a ready-to-implement digital strategy that maximises ROI by aligning emerging technology with business goals.

This fundamentals of digital marketing course is ideal for marketing professionals, business owners, and anyone looking to deepen their understanding of digital marketing in today's fast-paced digital world.
